Put together a team of up to eight classmates and collectively read all the books on the battle list. In the spring you will be invited to the Orillia Public Library to compete against other local high school students by answering trivia questions based on the books. In addition to getting a day away from school, you will have the opportunity to win fantastic prizes! Good luck!

For more information, contact your school librarian or Children's and Youth Services at the Orillia Public Library.
